Summer Brainstorm Session

Summer rain storms are great, but how about summer BRAIN storms with fellow AAUW members? On July 8, we will hold an open-ended brainstorming discussion session from 8 am to 10:30 am. Come share your thoughts on a variety of topics, including passion projects and hopes for the 2017-2018 AAUW Year. This hour and a half session will be followed by a closed Board and leadership session to formally plan the year, finalize the budget, calendar, etc. We hope to see you all there! If you have thoughts you'd like to share, but are unable to attend, please email Maddie or Rebecca in the week leading up to the session. As we get closer to the date, we will distribute finalized location information via email and any other adjustments as necessary. Be sure to mark your calendars now!

Co-Presidents' Corner

In Retrospect...

AAUW Mariposa has had an amazing year, and we would like to recap some of the highlights of our group's adventures.

The voter registration/birthday packets group compiled and provided 130 envelopes for Mariposa County High School students that were filled with gift certificates as well as useful information for 18 year-olds.

Fifty young women participated in Dinner with a Scientist, 35 of whom also took part in the lab tours offered during this program at UC Merced.

Through the backpack project, our members provided 46 fully stocked backpacks to Mariposa Elementary, Woodland, Sierra Foothill Charter School, Lake Don Pedro, Greeley Hill, and El Portal/Yosemite middle school students.

Our branch held five programs, each focusing on a different aspect of Mariposa organizations and the community, which allowed for relaxed learning opportunities.

Five high school students participated in, and four competed in, Speech Trek.

Our branch will be sending seven young women to Tech Trek this month (June).

Enthusiastic fundraising allowed us to raise enough money to cover our costs with just two events: the Yard Sale, which yielded $2,128.80, and An Evening in Paris, which generated $9,128.39!

Finally, AAUW Mariposa ended the year with 104 members on the roster!

As you all can imagine from the accomplishments above, this past year has been filled both with some challenges and with many successes. In the upcoming year, we hope to continue along this path by incorporating feedback from as many members as possible. Be on the lookout for an invitation to the planning meeting that will be held in July!

As we have navigated our way through the co-presidency role, we have felt encouraged by our fellow AAUW members and supported by our partners on the board. For this, we thank you all, and we look forward to another year!

Maddie*

Introducing our Board of Directors and Leadership Roles for 2017-2018!

Coming off of such a successful year, we have some big shoes to fill! Thank you to all those who served in various roles throughout 2016-2017, and thank you to those who are serving in 2017-2018! And not to mention, a big WELCOME! to three first-year members who have stepped into Board Roles. That is definitely hitting the ground running!

Time passes when you're having fun

Talk about longevity! We recently analyzed our membership records and learned that we have a LOT of long term members. Take a look...

5-10 years	8 members
10-20 years	9 members
20-30 years	20 members
30-40 years	2 members

That just shows how dedicated our members are and how quickly time passes when you're having fun!

Take a moment to read the excellent article highlighting AAUW and featuring interviews with Maddie and Rebecca in the May 18, 2017 edition of the Gazette.

Dinner With a Scientist is an Award Winner!

--Maddie Brown

While it's well-known by our branch that Dinner With a Scientist is a horizon-broadening, life changing and all around fun event for the high school attendees, it is now an official award winner at the state level. Thanks to the hard work and dedication of Marilyn Saunders, Naoko Kada, Trish Gilger, MyIP, Academic Boosters' Club, Tavis Corporation, and many others, AAUW Mariposa received a Branch Program Recognition Award at the recent State Annual Meeting.

AAUW Goes to Camp

--Dawn Johnson

Apparently AAUW leaders ARE bossy enough to control the weather!

The rains ceased, the clouds cleared, the sun popped out and our Annual Meeting went on.

A large number of our membership showed up for the summer camp-themed event on May 7th, which featured campstools, make-your-own trail mix, s'more sticks and hot dogs on the grill. People mingled and munched in the woodsy setting while celebrating the accomplishments of AAUW over the past year and the rewards of being a part of them.

We shared "campfire tales" of our personal AAUW moments--- times when we felt rewarded or learned something new or made a difference. During their "Ranger Talks", Co-Presidents Maddie and Rebecca thanked and gifted each branch leader with sweet stories and then talked about the vision for next year. The 2017-2018 Board of Directors was duly elected after not-so-hard-fought campaigns.

It took a village to pull off our summer camp:

•Jill Rowney and Leslie Bernacchi did a yeoman's job manning (er, woman-ning) the BBQ with aplomb and only one pair of melted tongs.

•Anita Bryant, Sharon Enrico and Cathy Owens didn't allow a single person to slip by the check-in table without feeling welcome.

•Bonnie Little, Micki Finney, Anita Bryant, Maddie Brown, Rebecca Swisher, Cindy Harp and Sharon Enrico turned a pickup-load of "stuff" into a virtual reality campground.

•Cathy Owens, Bonnie Little, Cindy Harp, Saralynn Nusbaum and Dina Lambert made vats of potato salad and deviled dozens of eggs to go with the grilled corn shucked by Rebecca Swisher.

•Jetty Uebner was our eagle-eyed paparazzi, dressed incognito as a Girl Scout.

•Many others loaned tables, chairs, grillin' stuff, lanterns and shade canopies (sure didn't need those!).

They all deserve Good Camper Awards. And so did our members who took a chance on the risky weather and got in the spirit. It was a great event and a reminder of why we're all in this organization.

Camp is now closed for the summer. Everyone to the pool!

Off to a week of exploration and fun

Tech Trek campers have completed their final set of paperwork, which we mailed to the Fresno Camp assistant director this week. They will head to camp on June 11 and will spend an entire week at CSU Fresno.

Tech Trek welcomes visitors on Visitor Day, Thursday, June 15. Contact Naoko Kada for more information.

Coffee and Convos series: successful launch!

--Maddie Brown

The second of two events for our "... and Convos" pilot series was held on Sunday, May 21st, and thank goodness for iced coffee, because it was warm! About a dozen members circled chairs up at the start of the morning, cold beverages in hand, to discuss a variety of topics. Attendees submitted questions that were then drawn out of a jar. Discussing topics from how different non-profits and volunteer groups can encourage member participation, to the challenges of student loan debt, to resources that are (or aren't) available to job seekers, we covered a lot of ground for over two hours. If one theme was evident throughout the morning, it is that we have members who are very passionate about our mission, as well as contributing to the well-being of our community, and that there are some great discussion topics to be carried on to other events for additional input!

Thank you to members who were able to stop by either our Cocktails and Convos or Coffee and Convos event and be our guinea pigs as we tested out this event set up, as well as members who shared their excitement but may not have been able to make it. For all of the above, we have good news! We will officially be taking this event on as a recurring series. While we're still ironing out the details, these drop-in style events will be held on alternating days and times to ensure members with a variety of schedules are able to join throughout the year. Feel free to email Maddie or Rebecca with location suggestions. I'm thinking "Carnitas and Convos" (aka Taco Truck) could be a great one...

Stay tuned and keep an eye out for the official 2017-2018 calendar (to be created mid-summer) to pencil in additional "...and Convos" events.

Dawn makes a baby bonsai

With teeny tiny pruning shears in hand, I eagerly awaited my bonsai sessions with auction donor Dave Moore (green-thumbed -husband of member Sharon Moore). He generously offered the item at our Evening in Paris fundraiser and I had no idea what a fun experience I had purchased. We met three times: once at the nursery to pick out a likely suspect, once at my house for its first haircut and then again in Dave's lovely bonsai garden to "bind its feet" and plant it in its newly bonsai-ed form. I learned a great deal from Dave's patient teaching and now nervously watch and water my bonsai baby daily. Even if it succumbs to my inept gardening, it will have been a great experience. Thanks to Dave for this donation and for the pleasant, Zen-like afternoons.

"Le Marche aux Fleurs" Brunch

--Marilyn Sauncers

Four ladies who are known for their own culinary offerings as auction items for nonprofit organizations received a "taste of their own". Judy Gibbons, Becky Matlock, Rosemary Caballero, and AAUW member, Kathy Sutherland were treated to a delightful "Le Marche aux Fleurs" brunch hosted by Marilyn Saunders and Margaret Brandenburg. They were greeted with champagne cocktails, crab and cucumber appetizers in a flower-filled sunroom. At the table, the "marche" continued with a small bowl of fresh fruit, crepes filled with ham, asparagus, and mushrooms. The meal ended with pot de creme. Each guest took a cyclamen plant home with her. The remaining flowers were delivered to the senior care facility at the Ewing Wing.

Margaret Brandenburg had a field of iris in full bloom that helped to build the drama for Le Marche aux Fleurs. She and Marilyn Saunders worked together to create this event for these four deserving women. Tom Gibbons was the winning bidder who gave this auction item to his wife, Judy, to share with her friends.

From Kathy: "We four women felt so pampered and special. What a lovely day!"

Isosceles Trio performs at Casto Winery

What better way to make a party extra special than to have live music? On a beautiful afternoon by the pool, two French horns (Peter Lindstrom and Jill Rowney) and a cello (Gay Dunn) entertained friends with an eclectic collection of music, arrangements of pop, classic, and folk. Kris Casto and Sandi Gabe threw a surprise retirement party for Karen Smith. The surprise, however, was on the hostesses. It turned out Karen couldn't resist taking on two more listings and has put off retirement-- but the party, the camaraderie, AND the music were all awesome!

Soroptimists give a "boost" to Backpack Project

At our Annual Meeting in May, Anita Bryant presented Cathy Owens, 2017 Backpack Project Co-Chair, with a check for $200 for the Backpack Project on behalf of Mariposa Soroptimists. We would like to thank the Mariposa Soroptimists for this generous contribution to The Backpack Project. It is both heartwarming and inspiring to see the collaborative spirit and continued support of young people in our community.

Pinot Noirs take the stage all at once

--Jill Rowney

Even through remodeling, Cindy and Lynn Harp entertain in grand style. After a delicious spread of salads, hors d'oeuvres, potatoes au gratin (recipe follows), and tri tip, barbecued to perfection, we did a blind tasting of Pinot Noir. But this time, we had all ten samples in small shot glasses in front of each of us so that we could compare all ten directly, going back and forth as we desired. Most of the wines faced tough scrutiny, but the Pinot that came out on top was a 2015 Meiomi available at our local Pioneer Market for $20.

Delicious potato dish served at the Corks and Forks' last gathering:

Potatoes Au Gratin from Saralynn

1# Frozen Hash brown potatoes (cube) Do not thaw.
2 c sharp cheddar grated
1 stick of softened butter (no need to soften just cut in small cubes)

1 can Cream of Chicken soup
1 c. sour cream
2 T chopped onion
salt & pepper
Blend all ingredients together. Lightly grease 9X11 baking dish. Sprinkle with paprika. bake at 350 for 1 hour, until bubbling.

Gardeners gather despite the cold and damp

--Jill Rowney

On Saturday, May 6, the garden group gathered at Cindy Harp's garden, on a cold, wet and rainy day. After perusing her yard and planting ideas, we retired to the dry and warmth inside and discussed the ins and outs of nurturing plants in the various micro climates of our Sierra foothills. Of note were Cindy's plant labels: corks on bamboo skewers and her straw-bale vegetable garden. The bales hold in the moisture and evidently the gophers don't care to penetrate them.

Above: Beautiful rose bud in the mist

Left: Cindy's straw-bale experiment. Note the plant tags. Great excuse to enjoy a glass after working in the garden!

The following Friday, May 12, Jill Rowney showed her unfenced yard, lush with salvias of several varieties, phlomis, lavenders, spiraea, and many irises, just ready to bloom. She reports that the deer rarely nibble on these natives (probably give them a tummy ache). She did, however, plant most of her irises in large pots to keep the gophers at bay. They will require more water and fertilizing than when in the ground, but the probability their of survival is far greater! We merrily dug up and potted some over-zealous plants that were taking over more than their allotted space for others to take home.

Iris hybrid: "Gingerbread Castle"

We decided to gather as events arose- just an e-mail alert and off we'll flock, like to the Mariposa iris gardens on Sunday, May 21. Tis the season- Happy Spring!

We Are Unprepared by Meg Little Reilly

Discussion Review

By JS Maclean

We Are Unprepared, a novel, was the topic of the AAUW Book Group discussion at the monthly meeting in the home of Helene Fisk of Mariposa. The first obvious question was "unprepared for what?" Two things: one private, one public. As the reader follows the impact of a mega-storm on a married couple and their rural community, the story suggests that people aren't ready for either the new dangers of climate change or the ancient uncertainties of marriage.

Members thanked Book Club Coordinator, Saralynn Nusbaum, for consistently creating opportunity for afternoon adventures in critical thinking. J S MacLean encouraged the inquiry into the text. Before Meg Little Reilly wrote this, her first novel, she crafted public communications for Wall Street, the White House, and the Environmental Defense Fund.

The following comments from Saralynn Nusbaum:

It was a small group but was interesting. I think we all liked the book but I personally thought it was a bit preachy. I also didn't find either of the main characters likable and we all agreed on that point. Jane (JS Maclean) brought up some interesting topics such as how the community dealt with the crisis which made me wonder how we in Mariposa, a similarly small and politically diverse community, might deal with such a situation.

Board Meeting Minutes

Library, May 1, 2017

CALL TO ORDER: at 4:47 by Co-President Rebecca Swisher

MEMBERS PRESENT: Molly Wilson, Bernadette Davis, Becky Mock, Dawn Johnson, Rebecca Swisher, Maddie Brown, Bonnie Little, Cindy Harp, Marilyn Saunders, Sandi Gabe, Dina Lambert, Saralynn Nusbaum

Listed below are members who have expressed interest in board positions:

- Molly Wilson - Director at Large
- Bernadette Davis – Recording Secretary
- Becky Mock – Program VP

Approval of Minutes from April 2017 board meeting: Minutes were submitted, reviewed, corrected, and approved via email, and will be published in the May newsletter.

PROJECT UPDATES:

Speech Trek: Maddie/Rebecca

Jill Harry will not chair Speech Trek in 2018. We are looking for a replacement and Jill will assist in training her successor. Maddie is reaching out for a possible chairperson.

Tech Trek: Maddie

An ice cream social for Tech Trek campers and parents was held at Marilyn Saunders' home on April 30.

All of the campers attended and they are excited about staying on the Cal State University Fresno campus. Tech Trek has been passed from AAUW national to state management; while we expect the transition to be seamless, the campers have not yet received their forms. There will be an AAUW member day during the week of camp and Sandi suggested that members be advised. Cathy Owens and Barbara Silva are assisting with Tech Trek this year but we are seeking a single contact person to work with Cathy and Barbara. Naoko will also be available to assist. We will be sending seven campers. We discussed protecting anonymity of future campers by using electronic submission of applications.

Dinner with a Scientist: Marilyn

DWS has been scheduled for October 5. Total cost for the project is estimated to be $3,565 and AAUW will absorb $1,554. The Academic Boosters Club will provide $800 to cover some of the food costs. Attendees will be limited to high school aged girls. A 54 passenger bus has been reserved and Tavis will once again cover. UCM may defray some of the room and food charges. This year there will be no lab tours but there will be a separate, non- AAUW sponsored, event for co-ed lab tours. We expect 50 girls and Sandi suggested that attendees be selected on a first come first served basis. Marilyn has been asked by VIA Adventures to sign Form AB45 acknowledging that alcoholic beverages will not be served on board the bus to anyone under the age of 21.

Backpack Project: Maddie/Rebecca

Cathy Owens and Karen Rust will be co-chairing this year. Last year we provided 50 backpacks to middle school boys and girls. The school counselors advise which students would most benefit; the basis is financial need. Each pack costs $50 - $75. Cathy and Karen met on May 2 to start coordinating for this year.

FUNDRAISER UPDATES: Sandi

Sandi and Sharon are discussing a date for our yard sale. A general discussion ensued regarding dates and goals for the coming year's fundraisers.

REPORTS:

Membership: Dawn Johnson

Our annual meeting, scheduled for May 7, 3 – 5:30PM, will be held at Darrah Park; the theme is "Summer Camp". We are still in need of canopies to provide shade and roasting sticks for marshmallows.

We are entitled to five honorary members this year. There was a discussion of possible candidates who support the AAUW mission and have actively contributed to the community. Our branch needs to submit the names of honorary members to AAUW national by June 30, 2017.

Our membership renewal campaign is underway for the July 1, 2017 – June 30, 2018 fiscal year; thirteen have already paid on line.

We have received member anniversary pins for members reaching a benchmark year as of 12/31/16. Members whose anniversaries did not reach a benchmark on 12/31/16 would not receive a pin (let's say you've been a member for seven years as of 12/31/16, you would not receive a pin for the five year benchmark since your benchmark did not occur in December 2016). Dawn is lobbying national on this point.

Publicity: Cindy Harp

Cindy is expecting an article on Tech Trek. With the beginning of our new year and new members in key roles, Cindy will be sending an "all hands" instruction guideline for submitting publicity requests. Cindy is willing to stay on as Director at Large/Publicity but she would like to mentor someone in the position.

Programs:: Maddie

Nancy Fluharty and Bridget Fithian will present a program on the Sierra Foothills Conservancy on Thursday May 11 at 4:30 at the Miners Inn. At this point, we will not make the cutoff for the May 4 edition of the Gazette. The program will be mentioned in the "Branch Buzz" and in the "Chamber Blast".

Treasurer's Report: Dina Lambert

Revenue for the month of March was $350, these were checks received from Tech Trek parents. Expenses were $30 and our ending cash balance was $15,066. A copy of the financial statements is available from the board secretary. Cindy moved to approve the treasurer's report, Bonnie seconded, and the motion was approved by all voting members present.

ACTION ITEMS

Conference reimbursement 2017 – Sandi Gabe will be attending the Washington DC national conference. This year $5,000 was budgeted for leadership development though we did not establish guidelines for administering. Last year we reimbursed two attendees to the national conference at $800 each. Dawn suggested that we reimburse Sandi $1,000. Cindy made a motion to increase the reimbursement this year to $1,000, Dina seconded, and the motion was approved by all voting members present. Dina issued a check for $1,000 to Sandi.

By-laws updates - our by-laws were extensively updated last year. Rebecca is reviewing and at this point she indicated that no changes need to be made. Sandi will share mandated changes with Rebecca.

Board role nomination update:

The role of treasurer remains open. Dina is willing to mentor whoever steps into the role. As we have so many new members joining the board, Sandi suggested doing a session of board training.

NEW BUSINESS:

AAUW CA Annual Meeting Recap: Dawn/Sandi

This was a one day meeting held in San Mateo; Sandi and Dawn attended. The Speech Trek finalists spoke. Next year's contest topic will be "How Can We Stand Up to Sexism". Our branch was recognized for our Dinner with a Scientist program and we received a certificate; an article acknowledging this award will be published in the Gazette. At the "Table Talk" portion of the annual meeting, participants identified topics of interest and then organized into small groups to discuss the topics, share insights and collaborate on solutions. Topics included:

- Inspire Young Women's Task Force (YWTF).
- Homeless Students
- Public Policy
- Tech Trek Transition
- Is AAUW Relevant?
- LGBTQ Issues
- Degree Requirement

AAUW CA Updates: Maddie

Recruiting is underway for state committees focused on public policy, programs, leadership, Young Women's Task Force (an organization that AAUW recently purchased), and lobbying. If members are interested, applications are due by June 10.

Assignment of Branch Buzz:

In the branch buzz email, please encourage SIG coordinators to reference the online calendar to avoid scheduling conflicts.

- May - Bonnie
- June – Saralynn
- July – Rebecca

Upcoming Events:

- May 7 – annual meeting
- May 11 – Sierra Foothill Conservancy program at Miner's Inn
- May 21 – Coffee & Convos at Slims

We discussed scheduling a planning session for the summer and agreed that we should pick a date before June. Maddie will send out proposed dates on Doodle.

The dues cutoff will be August so that catalogues can be finalized and distributed. Members will need to re-up for special interest groups (SIG). Survey Monkey will be used for signing up for the SIG's.

The meeting was adjourned by Co-President Rebecca Swisher at 5:58PM. Bonnie moved and Maddie seconded the motion.
